

Privacy Policy for 1720 Financial Services Corp

At 1720 Financial Services Corp, we understand that protecting your personal information is important. This Privacy Policy outlines the types of personal information we collect, how we use it, and the steps we take to keep it secure.

Information Collection and Use

We collect personal information from our customers and prospective customers in order to provide credit repair services. This information may include your name, address, Social Security number, date of birth, employment information, credit history, and other financial information.

We use this information to evaluate your credit history, identify errors, and develop a personalized plan to repair your credit. We may also use your information to communicate with you about your credit repair progress, send you marketing materials, and comply with legal requirements.

We may share your personal information with third-party service providers who assist us in providing credit repair services, such as credit reporting agencies, credit monitoring services, and debt collectors. We will only share your information to the extent necessary to provide the services you have requested.

Security Measures

We take reasonable measures to protect the personal information we collect. This includes implementing physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to prevent unauthorized access, use, and disclosure of your information.

We also require our employees to comply with our privacy policies and maintain the confidentiality of customer information.

Data Retention

We retain your personal information for as long as necessary to provide credit repair services to you, unless a longer retention period is required by law. After your account is closed or your information is no longer needed, we will take reasonable steps to securely dispose of your information.

Your Rights

You have the right to access and correct the personal information we hold about you. You may also request that we delete your personal information, although we may be required by law to retain certain information for a period of time.

To exercise these rights or if you have any questions or concerns about our privacy practices, please contact us at the address provided below.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our privacy practices. We will provide notice of any material changes by posting the updated policy on our website or by other means.
